

HISTORY OF DEWEY LIBRARIANS
HERBERT F. TYLER MEMORIAL LIBRARY

The Herbert F. Tyler Memorial Library was established in 1941. The library is named for the general manager/owner of the Dewey Portland Cement Co. His son, Donald M. Tyler founded the library in his father's honor.

Librarians to date:

1941-1945 Leone Hill

1945-1958 Edith Ingram

1958-1963 Bertha Harbour

1963-1977 Hester Nichols

1977-2002 Cheryl Schiermeier

2002-present Sandy Hadley